UNION SECURES RAISES, PROTECTS BENEFITS FOR F K KETLER MEMBERS

Teamsters Local 727 representatives have secured a new three-year contract for members at F K Ketler Co. who haul steel to bridges for repair.

The agreement includes annual wage increases as well as pension and health and welfare contributions increases by the Bedford, Ill.-based company. The union also protected all other current working conditions and benefits.

“The new contract builds on an already strong agreement,” said John Coli Jr., President of Local 727. “Our members will receive the raises and continued good, reliable health care and retirement benefits they deserve.”

The new contract expires Aug. 31, 2019.
